

Enviromow

We commit to working together with APM to increase participation of people with disability, injury or health conditions in employment.

We recognise that Australians with disability should have full inclusion in the workplace and be given every opportunity to fulfil their potential as equal members of the community.

We believe inclusive businesses will help create a more inclusive society.

We will help make this happen by partnering with APM, and joining the hundreds of other organisations who have pledged their support and participation.

Megan Wynne
APM Owner/Chair

Paul Ryan
Owner Director

1 May 2025

